Why Become A UI/UX Designer?

A Creative Job You'll Love

UI/UX is a satisfying job if you're curious about human behavior and passionate about how design shapes the products and experiences around you.

High Demand Means High Pay

Employers struggle to find qualified UI/UX designers and the demand keeps growing. The average UI/UX designer salaries in India range from 6 Lac to 10 Lac per year, depending on location and seniority.

A Flexible Career Path

As a UI/UX designer, you'll have the opportunity to work for startups, agencies, large corporates, on a freelance basis, or even remotely.

Why Choose Freelancers?

Human-Centric Learning

Our dual mentorship model ensures that you get all the support you need. You'll have both a tutor—an experienced UX designer responsible for evaluating your exercises, and a mentor—a UX industry expert who will give a feedback on your portfolio.

Flexibility With Accountability

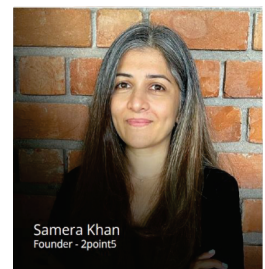

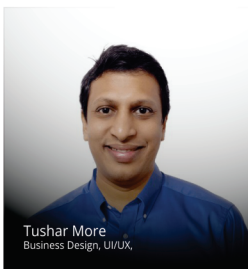

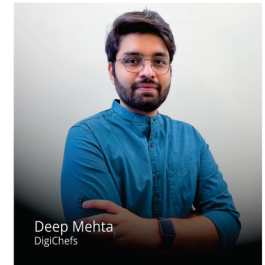

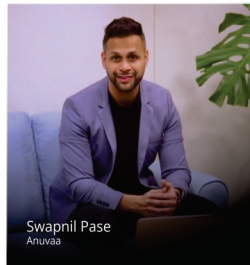

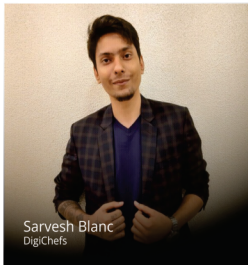

Study at a flexible pace within the 4-months program duration, working a minimum of 5 hours per week. Your mentor, tutor, student advisor, and career specialist will help you stay on track and accountable.
